Estelle L.

Estelle Legere?
mother of
Pierre Hernandez

Estelle Legère
Her daughters Ilma
+ Antonia
Elsie
Sophie
Noela
Antoinette
Elba

Charlie et Lucie

F. F. Carter, Lafayette and Opelousas, La.

Ovilia Legéré & grandchildren

Aunt and uncle of Pierre Hernandez

Mr. & Mrs. Jerome Guidry

Mrs. Guidry was "mom"
Estelle Legère's sister.

Jerome Guidry 1857-1936
Marie Ovilia Legere 1865-1927

A28

Ovida Lejeune, Pete's Godmother

Rose Bourgois
daughter of Louis
Bourgois and Odile Guidry.
She is Pete's first cousin.

POST CARD
CORRESPONDENCE
ADDRESS ONLY
PLACE A STAMP HERE

Rose Bourgeois 1912-2001

Odille Guidry 1886-1957
daughter of Marie
Ovilia Legere

aunt Estell

Estelle Legere's half brother

J. A. Legere and his wife, Leonie Leblanc.

Joseph Alexandre Legere 1882-1941

Leonie Leblanc 1881-1915

Estelle Legere's Wolf brothers

Claude Mayfield Hardy

Evia Legére's

son

Claude

Evia Legere is Estelle Legere's half sister

Claude Legere is Estelle Legere's half brother

Miss Legere and Saul Sonnier Nuptials Are Held in Scott

(Special to the Advertiser)

SCOTT—A beautiful wedding of the late fall season marked by an atmosphere of serenity and loveliness, and claiming wide social interest throughout Southwest Louisiana, was that of Miss Thelma Legere, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Legere of Scott, and Saul Sonnier, son of Mrs. Basile Sonnier, also of Scott, and the late Mr. Sonnier, which was solemnized at a Nuptial Mass at eight-thirty in the morning, with the Rev. Lawrence M. Fournet, pastor, officiating at the double-ring ceremony, and celebrant of the mass.

Saints Peter and Paul Catholic church, which provided the setting for this impressive ceremony, was beautifully decorated for the occasion with myraids of softly burning tall white tapers in branched candelabra against a background of beautiful white gladioli.

Preceeding the ceremony, Miss Betty Jane Schlesinger, accompanied by Mrs. Felix J. Samson, at the console of the organ, sang "When Morning Guilds the Skies". During the ceremony several selections including "Panis Angelicus", Schubert's "Ave Maria" and "Jesus, My Lord, My God, My All", were beautifully rendered by Miss Schlesinger.

To the strains of the traditional wedding march, the bride entered on the arm of her father, looking radiantly lovely in a very becoming town brown faille crepe, styled with a tucked yoke, high rounded neckline and long sleeves. The skirt was designed with soft folds forming a draped effect to the sides. Complimenting the beauty of her costume was the aqua felt hat trimmed with dusty rose velvet roses and maline. Her remaining accessories were of matching brown, and she carried a bridal missal covered with aqua satin, and topped with an arrangement of brierclift roses and matching satin streamers.

Miss Gertie Broussard was the bride's only attendant. She wore a stunning aqua faille crepe with brown accessories and a corsage of brierclift roses.

Harold Sonnier, nephew of the groom, was best man.

Ushers were Eugene Hernandez, Charles Dill and Freddie Sonnier.

Following the church ceremony, an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The rooms were beautiful with artistic arrangements of white blooms used in profusion. The bride's table was overlaid with a handsome white lace cloth. The beautiful double-ring wedding cake, topped with white confection orchids, which adorned the table, was encircled with arrangements of white stock, gladioli and white carnations. At one end of the table was the large silver punch bowl. Adding a soft glow to this lovely setting were the white tapers in branched candelabra, which flanked the wedding cake.

Serving were Mrs. Sidney Hernandez, Miss Cleo Songy, Miss Connie Escude and Miss Alena Prejean.

Mrs. Legere, chose for her daughter's wedding, a smart dark brown crepe with brown accessories, and a corsage of brierclift roses. Mrs. Sonnier, mother of the groom, was wearing a black crepe with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Later in the morning the young couple left on a wedding trip to Mexico, after which they will be at home at West St. Joseph St., Lafayette.

For travel the bride chose a stunning toast colored gabardine suit, worn with an oyster white blouse and a becoming chartreuse beaver hat. Her remaining accessories were of brown and a corsage of brierclift roses completed her becoming costume.

The bride is a graduate of Scott High school, and Southwestern Louisiana Institute and prior to her marriage was assistant Home Demonstration Agent for Vermilion parish. The groom is a graduate of Scott High school and Texas A and M college and served with the U. S. Army in the Pacific Theatre of Operations during World War II.

Moore
LAFAYETTE
LA.

Allen Legere
at 15 month old.

Allen Nicholas Legere
1905-1996
son of Joseph Alexandre Legere
and Leonie Leblanc

Estelle L.